~ BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION ~

Bob graduated from Edison High School and went into the Army Air Force after graduation. He spent most of his service time at the air base at Boca Raton, FL. After his time in the service, he graduated from the University of Minnesota and upon graduation went on to Law School at William Mitchell. After Law School graduation Bob worked for Archer Daniels Midland Co. and met Marjorie, married in 1953 and moved his career to Honeywell where he worked in the Ordinance Division as Chief Legal Contract Counsel where he spent much time negotiating government contracts in Washington, DC. Bob loved the out doors, he enjoyed his cabins where he could enjoy fishing and get away. He also made several trips with son Jack and Boy Scout Troop #94 from 1st Covenant Church of Mpls. An active member of 1st Covenant Church for many years, Bob held many responsible positions including Church Chairman and he loved teaching his Sunday School Class of Sr. High boys. Bob and Marjorie took many trips together including to the Paris Air Show and riding on the Orient Express to Venice. Bob was an active member in the Rotary Club too.
